4th May 2018

Firstly thank you for your patience at school drop off and pick up. I have been out with the senior leaders and Mr Brandon, our caretaker, to help and ease the situation where we can. It seems to be working and more importantly, the children are all into school, on time and in lessons by 8.40. The difference to the start of the day and at the end, in the final lessons, has been remarkable. All the parents I have spoken to, have commented that it has been quicker and smoother than they thought it would be, and that for some, who need to get to work in the mornings, the 8.20 start has been helpful.

I noticed that some families are sending in holiday request forms and writing letters asking me to authorise this in term time. I am unable to authorise anything but EXCEPTIONAL circumstances, and I have to follow government rules on what these circumstances are. I won't be able to authorise holiday as a general rule, and if this means that your child then has low attendance, that is then picked up by the Educational Welfare Officer and in certain cases, this could mean a fine. I am happy always, to meet you to discuss your individual family decisions if you would like. Please do make an appointment to see me for this.

This week I have been teaching Y6 writing and both myself and the teachers and Mrs Cianciar have been delighted with the quality of writing. We are working hard, but hopefully, without too much stress on the children, towards the SATs. On that note, on the week of the 14th May, there will be breakfast for year 6 at 8.25 each day in the hall. Children should arrive as usual and after line-up will go and have cereal and toast to give them a calm and happy start.

The school this week has been great to walk around. I saw art in Y6, story writing in Y1, some great adding and Times Tables Rock Stars in Y5 and Y2 and practice for the maypole dancing at Elstow Fair in the hall. I am looking forward to seeing everyone there and watching our Y3 and 4 children dance.

I wish everyone a lovely Bank Holiday weekend.
