

Geography

British Geography

-I can find where the united kingdom is located on a map

-Edinburgh is the capital of Scotland

-The average life age in the United Kingdom is 81 years old

The population of the United Kingdom is 65.54 million

-a county is a territorial division of some countries, forming the chief unit of local administration

-The united kingdom is made up of England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Island

-The UK is boarded by 4 seas.

-The longest river in the UK is the river Severn.

--Other major rivers include the Thames, which flows through Oxford and London, and the Trent and Mersey rivers, which drain rainfall from large areas of central England.

A city is a large town

-Hills are elevations of the earth's surface that have distinct summits, but are lower in elevation than mountains. Hills are be formed by a build up of rock debris or sand deposited by glaciers and wind.

-Movements of tectonic plates create volcanoes -along the plate boundaries, which erupt and form mountains. A volcanic arc system is a series of volcanoes that form near a subduction zone where the crust of a sinking oceanic plate melts.

Key words:

Ocean— A very large expanse of sea

Mountain— A large natural elevation of the earth's surface rising abruptly

Viaduct— A long bridge-like structure

Territories— an area of land

Magma— hot fluid below or within the earth's crust

County - A geographical region of a country

Earth's crust—Earth's hard outer layer