Message from the Principal

Today in assembly we talked about mental health. We thought about how we can look after our own and others' mental health and the importance of speaking up about anything that is worrying us. It would be great if you could continue this conversation at home over the weekend.

Across the UK, next week, schools will be focusing on internet safety. This year's theme is: 'Inspiring change? Making a difference, managing influence and navigating change online'. This is a great opportunity to talk with your child about staying safe online.
