Message from the Principal

Finally the warmer weather has arrived! Today your child is going to be bringing home a letter regarding suntan lotion, please check bags! It is important to ensure that your child is bringing to school a sun hat and a water bottle, both clearly named.

At the end of school today, lost property will be at the main reception. We have seen an increase in unnamed jumpers and water bottles being handed in. Please come and check if you are missing any items. Can we also ask that you ensure all clothing items are named.

Over the last two weeks we have had a number of visitors to Elstow. We get to see our wonderful children working hard every day. I enjoy showcasing our school and it is always pleasing to be complimented on the excellent behaviour and learning environments. We are very proud of our Elstow team.

Have a wonderful weekend.

Mrs Ciantar
